Democratic Tornado in N. Jersey.

The result of the late election in N. Jersey has been most glorious. The democracy have swept the state, electing Dr. Fort, Governor, by 5,000 majority! four out of five members of Congress—a democratic net gain of three!! 12 democrats to 9 whigs in the Senate, and 35 democrats to 25 whigs in the House!!! An U. S. Senator is to be elected this winter in place of Mr. Dayton, whig. The entire judiciary of the state, Chancellor, Supreme Judges, and Chief Justice, are democrats.—This is the first election under the new constitution.

The members of Congress elected are—
1st Dist.—Nathan T. Stratton, dem. gain, 2d " Charles Skelton, dem. gain, 3d " Wildrick, dem, 4th " George H. Brown, whig, 5th " R. M. Price, dem. gain.

WISCONSIN ELECTION.—Messrs. Eastman, Doty, and Durkee, democrats, are elected to Congress—a democratic gain of one. The Legislature is largely democratic. An U. S. Senator is to be elected this winter in place of Hon. H. Dodge, whose term expires on the 4th of March next.

ILLINOIS.—The returns from Illinois indicate the election of Bissell, Ficklin, Malony, Richardson, and Campbell, democrats; and Yates, whig.

NEW YORK.—The election for Governor is very close, and it is still uncertain whether Hunt, whig, or Seymour, dem. is elected; the probability is rather in favor of Hunt. Of the members of Congress the democrats have elected 15, and the whigs 19—a democratic gain of 13, but still not quite as well as we ought to have done. The whig state ticket is elected, and that party will have a majority of 20 to 25 in the Legislature. The larger portion of the democratic members of Congress elected, are understood to be opposed to the fugitive slave law.

An U. S. Senator is to be elected in place of Mr. Dickinson.

MASSACHUSETTS.—There has been no election of Governor by the people. Returns from 308 towns give Briggs, whig, 53,582; Boutwell, democrat, 33,454; and Phillips, free-soil, 27,389. For the Senate, the whigs have elected 11, the democrats and free-soilers 22, doubtful 2, no choice 5. The House, as far as heard from, stands 155 whigs, 148 opposition, and 91 no choice.

DELAWARE DEMOCRATIC!—The democrats have elected their Governor by a handsome majority, and two thirds of the Legislature. An U. S. Senator is to be elected this winter, who will of course be democratic.

MICHIGAN.—Penniman, whig, is elected to Congress in the 1st (Detroit) district, beating Buell, the present member, 1,150. C. E. Stuart, dem, is elected in the 2d district by 150 majority. James L. Conger, whig, in the 3d, by 1,000 majority.

OHIO—Official.—The official vote for Governor shows a majority for Wood, democrat, of 11,997. For Board of Public Works, Miller's, dem. majority is 11,791. The free-soil vote for Governor is 13,826.

CAN IT BE POSSIBLE?—The New York Evening Post states that the democratic state convention, held at Syracuse, adopted a resolution presenting the name of that arch apostate, Martin Van Buren, as the Democratic candidate for President! The resolution was adopted by a vote of 93 to 27; but was afterwards ruled out of order, and did not appear in the proceedings of the convention.

We can scarcely believe it possible that any body calling themselves democrats—even in New York—could so far outrage the feelings of the true democracy of the Union as to present the name of a traitor like Van Buren—who was the means of defeating our nominee at the last Presidential election—as a democratic candidate for the Presidency. If it be so, the sooner they take themselves out of the party, the better for all concerned. They are not democrats, and their remaining in our ranks will only produce dissensions and schisms.

It seems to us, that a feeling of modesty, shame, and contrition for their past misdeeds—for their shameful defection and defeat of the regular democratic nominee at the Presidential election in 1848—should have restrained the democracy of New York from making any nomination for President at present. That ought to be left to the reliable democracy of other states—for those who support the democratic candidates. A set of men who aid in defeating our candidates; who, blinded by the ignis fatuus of free-soilism and Wilcox pro-vision, lose sight of the great principles of our party; and who sacrifice every thing to their own petty squabbles, are certainly the last who ought to thrust themselves forward in making nominations of candidates for the true democrats.

FAMILY GROCERIES.—Messrs. S. M. Black & Co. have just opened their new Grocery Store at the corner of Calhoun and Berry-sts., with a choice stock of fresh family groceries, fruits, &c. They have also several delicacies, such as pickled lobsters and oysters, and other delicacies calculated to tickle the palate of epicures. The firms are evidently men of taste, as is evinced by the tasty articles to be found on their shelves.

They are fitting up two splendid saloons where parties can be accommodated with fresh oysters, &c. during the season, for such dainties and ice cream in the summer.

They also manufacture all descriptions of Candies, of a superior quality, which they will sell as low as similar articles can be purchased in Buffalo or Cincinnati. Dealers will do well to give them a call.

The Next Presidential Election.—The result of the late elections seem to settle the question definitely that Gen. Cass will not be taken up as the democratic presidential candidate at the next election. The compromise measures of the late session of Congress, especially the Fugitive law, are not acceptable to the democracy of the north. To this we may attribute our defeat in Michigan—Gen. Cass's own state; and in New York, Illinois, and Wisconsin, a large majority of the democrats elected to Congress are opposed to the measure. As Gen. Cass was a warm advocate of the compromise, it seems to us that his nomination for the Presidency is out of the question; and that if nominated, he could not carry his party strength in those states.

In this position of affairs, the question arises, who will be our candidate? We would recommend the name of our distinguished fellow-citizen, GEN. JOSEPH LANE, as a man every way fitted for the station, and one who would unite our party strength to a greater degree than any other who could be selected. He has not been contaminated by the corrupting influence of the political atmosphere at Washington, but is emphatically fresh from the people; and not being committed to the exciting and all-pervading negro question, might reasonably be expected to be more generally acceptable to all sections of the Union than any of the more prominent politicians.—

In the West he would outrun any man who could be started; and we believe would be equally successful in other sections of the Union. The people are becoming tired of back-biting politicians, and would rally with enthusiasm around the standard of the Marion of the Mexican war.

Books.—C. L. Hill has got another lot of New Books, among which we notice some beautiful Annuals and Gift Books, and several other splendidly put-up works, admirably adapted for Christmas and New Year's Presents. He has now a very large and complete assortment of Books, which he offers at extremely low prices.

DAUGERREOTYPES.—Mr. Caldwell intends remaining here one week longer. Those desiring good likenesses had better give him a call without delay, as it is seldom so favorable an opportunity offers. His room is over B. Smith's Store; entrance on Calhoun street.

ACCIDENT.—On Thursday last, as Mr. John Lillie of this place was hauling a load of hay, his horses took fright when near the corner of Calhoun and Berry streets, and overturned the wagon, throwing Mr. L. violently to the ground, breaking his collar bone, and otherwise seriously injuring him.

The supper given by the ladies of the Wayne Street Methodist Church on Thursday evening was numerously attended. Upwards of $150 was realized, which is to be appropriated towards purchasing a bell for their new church.

LETTERS FROM THE BACKWOODS AND THE ADIRONDACKS.—By Rev. J. T. HEADLEY: N. York, John S. Taylor, Publisher, 743 Nassau Street, price 35 cents.

We are indebted to the publisher for a copy of this work. Mr. Headley is a vigorous writer, possessing great descriptive power, and the work before us fully sustains the high character of the author.

CELEST, OR NEW YORK ABOVE GROUND AND UNDERGROUND: By G. C. FOSTER, author of New York Gas-light. Published by Dowd & Davenport, Tribune Buildings, N. York. Price 25 cents.

THE WHOLE movement and tendency of the plot, which is artistically and powerfully wrought up and sustained, goes to establish the idea that crime and wretchedness are the result of circumstances or a false principle of social combinations, and not inherent in human nature, which the author contends is intrinsically pure and beautiful, and longs for a harmonious and beneficial development. In pursuance of this end, the author draws vivid and graphic pictures of life in all its varieties, high and low, in which every stratum of society finds its correct representation.

The book is well written, and will, to a large class of readers, be interesting and popular.

WE are getting up a club for 1851. Only $12.50 per copy for a club of eight. Who wants it?

EXCURSION TICKETS TO THE LONDON FAIR, $100.—The Philadelphia Inquirer states that Geo. McHenry & Co., active and enterprising merchants of that city, have determined to furnish excursion tickets in their line of packages, at one hundred dollars a piece, to include ships, at the passage out and home, to the great London Fair. The first ship, the "Mary Pleasant," will sail on the 14th March. She has ample accommodation for two hundred passengers, and her owners will furnish everything except wine and liquors. She will remain three or four weeks in port, so that ample opportunity will be afforded, not only to visit the great fair, but to run over to Paris, and tarry among the wonders of the French metropolis. The second ship, the "Shenandoah," will leave a month after—say the 15th of April. Subsequently two other ships will leave.

They are fitting up two splendid saloons where parties can be accommodated with fresh oysters, &c. during the season, for such dainties and ice cream in the summer.

They also manufacture all descriptions of Candies, of a superior quality, which they will sell as low as similar articles can be purchased in Buffalo or Cincinnati. Dealers will do well to give them a call.

THE undersigned offers for sale his Mill Property situated on the Elkhart River, in Elkhart County, Indiana, about one mile west from Fort Wayne, between Wayne and Erie Canal.—The property is now improved with a 500-H.P. Mill, and Brad. Gears for GRIST and other MILLS. The Dam is one of the best in the country, and has been built only two years, but during that time has withstood without the slightest injury unusual freshets, and that of the year. The supply of water is ample, and sufficient with the help of the 75 ft. of driving air of 44 ft. square, saw Mill, and Woollen Mill, all times, and during most of the year, almost any amount of machinery will be propelled.

4 Horses and one Carriage furnished, free of charge.

Room on Culbourn, near the Spence House.

The Fort Wayne Sentinel.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1850.

MR. V. B. PALMER, Tribune Building, New York; Third and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia; and Scollay's Building, Boston, is sole Agent for the Sentinel in those cities, and is alone authorized to receive subscriptions, advertisements, &c., on our account.

Democratic Tornado in N. Jersey.

The result of the late election in N. Jersey has been most glorious. The democracy have swept the state, electing Dr. Fort, Governor, by 5,000 majority; four out of five members of Congress—a democratic net gain of three! 12 democrats to 9 whigs in the Senate, and 23 democrats to 25 whigs in the House!! An U. S. Senator is to be elected this winter in place of Mr. Dayton, whig. The entire judiciary of the state, Chancellor, Supreme Judge, and Chief Justice, are democrats. This is the first election under the new constitution.

The members of Congress elected are—
1st Dist.—Nathaniel T. Stanton, dem., gain.
2d " Charles Sheldon, dem., gain.
3d " Isaac Wildrick, dem.
4th " George H. Brown, whig.
5th " R. M. Price, dem., gain.

WISCONSIN ELECTION.—Messrs. Eastman, Doty, and Durkee, democrats, are elected to Congress—a democratic gain of one. The Legislature is largely democratic. An U. S. Senator is to be elected this winter in place of Hon. H. Dodge, whose term expires on the 4th of March next.

ILLINOIS.—The returns from Illinois indicate the election of Bissell, Picklin, Malony, Richardson, and Campbell, democrats; and Yates, whig.

NEW YORK.—The election for Governor is very close, and is still uncertain whether Hon. whig, or Seymour, dem., is elected; the probability is rather in favor of Hunt. Of the members of Congress—the democrats have elected 15, and the whig 19—a democratic gain of 13, but will not quite as well as we ought to have done. The whig single ticket is elected, and that party will have a majority of 20 to 25 in the Legislature. The larger portion of the democratic members of Congress elected, are understood to be opposed to the fugitive slave law.

An U. S. Senator is to be elected in place of Mr. Dickinson.

MASSACHUSETTS.—There has been no election of Governor by the people. Returns from 308 towns give Briggs, whig, 53,982; Boutwell, democrat, 33,554; and Phillips, free-soil, 22,389. For the Senate, the whigs have elected 11, the democrats and free-soil 22, doubtful 2, no choice 5. The House, as far as heard from, stands 156 whigs, 143 opponents, and 91 no church.

DELAWARE DEMOCRATIC.—The democrats have elected their Governor by a handsome majority, and two-thirds of the Legislature. An U. S. Senator is to be elected this winter, who will of course be democratic.

MICHIGAN.—Peninsular, whig, is elected to Congress in the 1st (Detroit) district, basing Buel, the present member, 1,150. C. E. Stuart, dem., is elected in the 2d district by 150 majority. James L. Conger, whig, in the 3d, by 1,000 majority.

OHIO.—Official.—The official vote for Governor shows a majority for Wood, democrat, of 11,997. For Board of Public Works, Miller, dem., majority is 11,791. The free-soil vote for Governor is 13,490.

CAN IT BE POSSIBLE?—The New York Evening Post states that the democratic state convention, held at Syracuse, adopted a resolution presenting the name of that arch apostate, Martin Van Buren, as the Democratic candidate for President! The resolution was adopted by a vote of 20 to 27; but was afterwards ruled out of order, and did not appear in the proceedings of the convention.

We can scarcely believe it possible that any body calling themselves democrats—even in New York—could so far outrage the feelings of the true democracy of the Union as to present the name of a traitor like Van Buren—who was the means of defeating our nominee at the late Presidential election—as a democratic candidate for the Presidency. If it be so, the sooner they take themselves out of the party, the better for all concerned. They are not democrats, and their remaining in our ranks will only produce discontents and schisms.

It seems to us, that a feeling of modesty, shame, and contrition for their past misdeeds—for their shameful defection and desertion of the regular democratic nominee at the Presidential election in 1848—should have restrained the democracy of New York from making any nomination for President at present. That ought to be left for the reliable democracy of other states—for those who support the democratic candidates. A set of men who did in defeating our candidates; who, blinded by the ignis fatuus of free-soilism and Wilkeson's pro-slavery, lost eight of the great principles of our party; and who sacrifice every thing to their own party squabbles, are certainly the last who ought to thrust themselves forward in making nominations of candidates for the true democrats.

FAMILY GROCERIES.—M. S. Black & Co. have just opened their new Grocery Store at the corner of Calhoun and Berry-st., with a choice stock of fresh family groceries, fruits, &c. They have also general delicacies, such as pickled lobsters and oysters, and other rarities calculated to tickle the palates of epicures. The firm are evidently men of taste, as is evinced by the best articles to be found on their shelves.

They are fitting up two splendid saloons, where parties can be accommodated with fresh oysters, &c., during the season for such dainties, and ice cream in the summer.

They also manufacture all descriptions of Cigars, of a superior quality, which they will sell as low as similar articles can be purchased in Buffalo or Cincinnati. Dealers will do well to give them a call.

The Next Presidential Election.—The result of the late elections seem to settle the question definitely that Gen. Cass will not be taken up as the democratic presidential candidate at the next election. The compromise measures of the late session of Congress, especially the Fugitive law, are not excepted to the democracy of the north. To this we may attribute our defeat in Michigan—Gen. Cass's own state; and in New York, Illinois, and Wisconsin, a large majority of the democrats elected to Congress are opposed to the measure. As Gen. Cass was a warm advocate of the Compromises, it seems to us that his nomination for the Presidency is out of the question; and that if nominated, he could not carry his party strength in those states.

In this position of affairs, the question arises, who will be our candidate? We would recommend the name of our distinguished fellow-citizen, Gen. Joseph Lane, as a man every way fitted for the station, and one who would unite our party strength to a greater degree than any other who could be selected. He has not been contaminated by the corresponding influence of the political atmosphere at Washington, but is emphatically free from the people; and not using committed or the exciting and all pervading奴 question, might reasonably be expected to be more generally acceptable to all sections of the Union than any of the more prominent politicians. In the West he would unite any man who could be started; and we believe would be equally successful in other sections of the Union. The people are becoming tired of buckneyed politicians, and would rally with enthusiasm around the standard of the Mexican lion. H. D. Dodge, whose term expires on the 4th of March next.

BOOKS.—C. L. Hill has got another lot of New Books, among which we notice some beautiful Annuals and Gift Books, and several other splendidly put-up works admirably adapted for Christmas and New Year's Presents. He has now a very large and complete assortment of Books, which he offers at extremely low prices.

DAGUERREOTYPES.—Mr. Caldwell intends remaining here one week longer. Those desiring good likenesses had better give him a call without delay; as it is seldom so favorable an opportunity offers. His room is over B. Smith's Store; entrance on Calhoun street.

ACCIDENT.—On Thursday last, as Mr. John Lillie of this place was hauling a load of hay, his horses took flight when near the corner of Calhoun and Berry streets, and overturned the wagon, throwing Mr. L. violently to the ground, breaking his collar bone, and otherwise seriously injuring him.

The supper given by the ladies of the Wayne Street Methodist Church on Thursday evening was numerously attended. Upwards of $100 was realized, which is to be appropriated towards purchasing a bell for their new church.

NEW BOOKS.—Letters of Memory for 1851: Philadelphia, E. K. Butler & Co. Publishers.

This is a most beautiful gift book, superbly bound, and adorned with several splendid medallions, illuminated Title Page, Presentation Plate, &c. For sale by C. L. Hill, Fort Wayne.

LETTERS FROM THE BACKWOODS AND THE ADIRONDACKS: By Rev. J. T. Headley: N. York, John S. Taylor, Publisher, 143 Nassau Street, price 35 cents.

We are indebted to the publisher for a copy of this work. Mr. Headley is a vigorous writer, possessing great descriptive power, and the work before us fully sustains the high character of the author.

CELEST. OR NEW YORK above ground and underground: By G. C. Foster, author of New York by Gas-light. Published by Dewitt & Davenport, Tribune Buildings, N. York, price 25 cents.

The whole movement and tendency of the plot, which is artistically and powerfully wrought up and sustained, goes to establish the idea that crime and wretchedness are the result of circumstances or a false principle of social combinations, and not inherent in human nature, which the author contends is ultimately pure and beautiful, and longs for a harmonious and beneficial development. In pursuance of this end, the author draws vivid and graphic pictures of life in all its varieties, high and low, in which every stratum of society finds its correct representation.

The book is well written, and will, to a large class of readers, be interesting and popular.

WHERE IS THE DEC. NO. OF GRAHAM? Most of our exchanges are noticing his reception, but our copy has not come to hand.

THE DEC. NO. OF PETERSON'S LADIES' NATIONAL MAGAZINE is adorned with two beautiful mezzotints, and a splendid fashion plate. Great improvements are contemplated to be made in the coming volume, and to give the work a thorough national character, the stories will be located in different sections of the Union—one in New England, one in the Middle States, one in the South, one on the Border, and one in the West.

We are gearing up a club for 1851. Only $1.25 per copy for a club of eight. Who wants it?

EXCURSION TICKETS TO THE LONDON FAIR FOR 1850.—The Philadelphia Inquirer states that Gen. Merrihy & Co., active and enterprising merchants of that city, have determined to furnish excursion tickets at their line of packet-ships, at one hundred dollars a-piece, to include the passage out and home, to the great London Fair. The first ship, the "Mary Celeste," will sail on the 14th March. She has ample accommodations for two hundred passengers, and her owners will furnish everything—except wine and spirits.

She will remain three or four weeks in port, so that ample opportunity will be afforded, not only to visit the great fair, but to run over to Paris, and carry on the wonders of the French Capital. The second ship, the "Southamshire," will leave month after—say the 15th of April. Subsequently two other ships will leave.

DEATH OF HON. SAMUEL YOUNG.—The Albany Express of yesterday says:

"We are called upon to announce the death of Hon. Samuel Young, at his residence on Saturday night. Col. Young was one of the ablest and most distinguished Democrats in the State, and had identified himself with every thing calculated to endear him to his political friends, and secure for him the respect of his opponents."

They are fitting up two splendid saloons, where parties can be accommodated with fresh oysters, &c., during the season for such dainties, and ice cream in the summer.

They also manufacture all descriptions of Cigars, of a superior quality, which they will sell as low as similar articles can be purchased in Buffalo or Cincinnati. Dealers will do well to give them a call.
